PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION.

PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION.

IN THE MATTER OF THE "PUBLIC UTILITIES ACT," AND IN THE MATTER OF AN INQUIRY INTO THE RATES AND PROPERTY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA ELECTRIC RAILWAY COMPANY, LIMITED, AND ITS ASSOCIATED AND SUBSIDIARY COMPANIES.

Public Notice.

PURSUANT to an order of the Public Utilities Commission, dated August 15th, 1939, and supplementary instructions, engineers and accountants have been employed by the Commission to investigate and report on matters leading to the determination of proper rates to be charged by British Columbia Electric Railway Company, Limited, and its associated and subsidiary companies. A limited number of copies of the reports will be available for examination by the public on and after November 1st, 1941, at the office of the Commission at Victoria, and at the office of the Chief Engineer, Holden Building, Vancouver, B.C.

After an opportunity has been given to the public to examine the reports, public hearings will be held in the matter of the proper rates to be charged by the said companies, at which the said reports will be presented, and any other relevant evidence may be presented, together with argument arising therefrom. The following matters, among others, will be considered, namely, the necessary costs of operation, the reasonable and proper annual allowances for depreciation and other reserves, and the amount to be allowed out of annual revenue for a fair and reasonable return upon the appraised value of the property. Requests for improvements in service involving increased costs may also be presented for consideration.

PROCEDURE.

In accordance with the provisions of section 15 of the "Public Utilities Act," each service unit of the group of companies will be considered separately. The following division into service units has been proposed:—

Urban Transportation:

Lower Mainland.

Vancouver Island, South.

Interurban Transportation:

Lower Mainland.

Gas Service:

Lower Mainland.

Vancouver Island, South.

Electric Service:

Lower Mainland.

Kamloops.

Alberni.

Newcastle-Nanoose.

Comox-Nelson.

Vancouver Island, South.

Water Service:

Comox-Nelson.

The Chief Engineer of the Commission, Mr. S. R. Weston, Holden Building, Vancouver, B.C., will be responsible for the general organization and presentation of the evidence obtained by him and by the accountants employed by the Commission.

Any person, municipality, or other corporation may apply to the Commission for permission to appear in any part of the hearings as an interested party. The applications shall show the particular part of the proceedings in which the applicant is interested, and a brief résumé of the proposed argument. Sections 73, 121, and 122 of the "Public Utilities Act" should be referred to particularly in making the application.

Interested parties are requested to study the reports of the engineers and accountants, and to make written submissions to the Chief Engineer, showing the nature of any evidence they wish to present. The Commission may decide against the admissibility of such evidence on the grounds of irrelevancy or duplication.

PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION,

3582-oc23

W. A. CARROTHERS, Chairman.

PRIVATE BILL NOTICES.

NOTICE.

NOTICE is hereby given that an application will be made to the Legislative Assembly of the Province of British Columbia, at its next session, on behalf of the City of Vancouver, for an Act to amend the "Vancouver Incorporation Act, 1921," providing for the following matters and giving to the said City and Council thereof the following powers, namely:—

1. To amend the said Act by extending the boundaries of the City to include a strip of District Lot 140 33 feet wide along the western boundary of the City between King Edward Avenue and South-west Marine Drive.

2. To amend the said Act to enable the Council to prohibit the owners or harbourers of dogs from allowing said dogs to enter premises where foodstuffs are kept, displayed, and sold.

3. To amend the said Act to provide for an annual validation of the City's Tax Roll.

4. To amend the said Act to enable the City to borrow money by the issue and sale of serial debentures.

5. To amend the said Act to enable the Council to provide for the annual registration of bicycles.

6. To amend section 286 of the said Act by substituting the words "daily or as frequently as possible" for the words "once a day," where they appear in the third and fourth lines thereof; and by striking out all the words after the word "Comptroller" in the sixth line thereof, and substituting therefor the following words: "Every such officer and agent shall give proper receipts in all cases to the party paying."

7. To amend the said Act by deleting therefrom the provisions requiring the Mayor and City Clerk to countersign warrants.

8. To amend section 291 of the said Act by striking out subsection (3) thereof, and substituting the following therefor:—

"(3.) The Treasurer shall every lawful day deposit, or cause to be deposited, in some bank to be designated by the Council, all moneys belonging to the City in his possession as soon as receipt thereof has been duly entered in his records."

9. To amend section 291 of the said Act by inserting the word "the" between the words "and" and "Auditor" where they appear in the third line of subsection (4) thereof.

10. To amend section 291 of the said Act by striking out subsection (8) thereof.

11. To amend section 295 of the said Act to provide the method by which the Comptroller shall draw warrants on the Treasurer.

12. To amend section 310 of the said Act by striking out all the words preceding the word "no" in the third line thereof.

13. To amend section 311 of the said Act to provide for the preservation of accounts for not less than six years.

14. To amend the said Act to enable the Council by by-law to direct the manner in which cheques of the City shall be signed or otherwise authenticated.

Dated at Vancouver, B.C., this 18th day of October, 1941.

ARTHUR E. LORD,
Solicitor for the Applicant,
City of Vancouver.

To pay for any property acquired by the Company either wholly in cash or partly in cash and partly by a mortgage or mortgages for the balance of the purchase money, or by the issue of debentures for such purchase money, or any part thereof, or to give any other security for the payment or part payment of any property so acquired which may be agreed upon between the vendor of such property and the Company:

(j.) To invest and deal with any of the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as from time to time may be determined:

(k.) To enter into any contract of insurance permitted by law and, without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing powers, to effect all such insurances in relation to any part of the Company's business, and any risks incidental thereto, as may seem expedient, and if thought fit to enter into any contract of inter-insurance, and to join or become a member of and to subscribe to any mutual insurance company or protective indemnity association having for its objects the reciprocal indemnity, protection, or insurance of the members thereof against loss or damage to their property:

(l.) To take, have, use, and enjoy all the powers conferred by the "Water Act, 1939," and to acquire, operate, and carry on the business of a power company, and to apply water or water-power for producing any form of power, or for producing and generating electricity for the purposes of light, heat, and power, or any other purpose for which electricity may be applied; to acquire, construct, and operate waterworks, and to distribute, sell, supply, or use water or water-power for mechanical irrigation, domestic, or any other purposes for which water or other power may be supplied, sold, or used; to render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by acquiring, constructing, erecting, and operating any and all improvements of every source whatsoever for said purposes, including the diverting of the waters of any stream, pond, or lake into any other channel or channels:

(m.) To construct, equip, operate, and maintain electric, cable, or other tramways for the conveyance of passengers or freight, and telegraph and telephone systems and lines:

(n.) To carry on the business of an electric-light company in all its branches, and to do any and all things necessary to generate, distribute, and supply electricity to any person, firm, or corporation, or municipality:

(o.) To acquire by lease, purchase, or otherwise lands containing sand, gravel, granite, sandstone, or limestone, or other substances or materials:

(p.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to use, grant licences or rights in respect of, or otherwise turn to account patents, patent rights, licences, concessions, trade-marks, secret processes, British, Canadian and foreign, as to any invention, improvements, or process which may be considered conducive to the attainment of any of the objects of the Company, or which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(q.) To improve, alter, manage, work, develop, turn to account, and deal in and with any property, real or personal, acquired by the Company, or in which the Company is interested (subject always to the restrictions imposed by clause 4 hereof):

(r.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, mortgage, grant options to purchase, or otherwise deal with the whole of the undertaking and property and rights of the Company, or any part thereof, for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts as may be determined by the Company of the purchase moneys, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of, or other dealing with the whole or part of the property, estate, and rights of the Company amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares, or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine:

(s.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(t.) To make, draw, accept, endorse, and negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, bills of lading, and other negotiable or non-negotiable instruments or obligations:

(u.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business (whether manufacturing or otherwise), property, rights, and liabilities of any company or person carrying on, or authorized or intending to carry on, any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or owning or being entitled to any property which it is considered desirable for this Company to acquire or take any interest in, and to pay therefor wholly or partly in cash, or wholly or partly in shares, bonds, or debentures of the Company or otherwise:

(v.) To borrow or raise money, and for the purpose of securing or discharging any such money or any other debt, or any other contract of indemnity, or other obligation or liability of or binding upon the Company, to mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property and assets of the Company, present or future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company, and to create and issue at par or at a premium or discount bonds, debentures, mortgage debentures, debenture stock, and other securities payable to bearer or otherwise, and either permanent or redeemable or repayable, and to secure any obligations or securities of the Company by means of covering or trust deeds, or otherwise, and to confer upon any encumbrancer such powers of making and enforcing calls and of exchanging any debentures or debenture stock for shares in the capital of the Company and otherwise as may be thought fit:

(w.) To pay all expenses of and in connection with the registration of this or the promotion of any other company, and the obtaining the subscription of any shares or securities thereof, or the guarantee of any debentures or other securities of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for any services rendered or agreed to be rendered in or about such registration or promotion or subscription of shares or guarantee of securities:

(x.) To lend money to and guarantee the performance of the contracts and obligations of, and the payment of the principal of or the dividends or interest on any stock, shares, debentures, or securities of, any company or person having dealings with the Company in any case in which such loan or guarantee may appear likely, directly or indirectly, to further the objects of this Company or the interest of its shareholders:

(y.) To amalgamate with any other company, whether by sale or purchase (for shares or otherwise) of the undertaking, subject or not to the liabilities of this or any such other company, with or without winding-up, or by sale or purchase (for shares or otherwise) of all the shares, stock, debentures, or other securities of this or any such other company, or in any other manner; and to enter into partnership or any arrangement in the nature of partnership, or any joint purse or profit-sharing arrangement with any company or person, and to become a member of any society, whether incorporated or not:

(z.) To take all necessary and proper steps in any Parliament or with any foreign, colonial, or other Government, or with any authority (local, municipal, or otherwise) in any part of the world, for enabling the Company to give effect to these presents or to carry any of the Company's objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose, and to oppose the granting of any Act, Bill, or provisional order, or concession to others, or any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interest, and to apply for, procure, or obtain any powers, privileges, rights, or concessions for this Company, or for any other company or person:

(aa.) To give pensions, gratuities, donations, and emoluments to any person at any time in the employment of the Company, or engaged in any business acquired by the Company, and the wives, widows, families, and dependents of any such persons, and to make gifts to any person, firm, or corporation:

(bb.) To distribute among the members in specie any property of the Company, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law:

(cc.) To do all or any of the things aforesaid through subsidiary companies, and promote any company having objects in whole or in part similar to those of this Company, or whose objects shall include the acquisition of any of the assets or liabilities of this Company, or the promotion of which shall be thought calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects of this Company or the interest of its shareholders, and to acquire, hold, and deal in the shares, stocks, or securities of any such company:

(dd.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid either as principals or agents, and either in the name of the Company or of any person or company as agent of the Company, and either alone or in concurrence with any person, company, Government, or other body or authority:

(ee.) To do all such other things as are in the opinion of the directors incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "company" throughout this clause shall be deemed to include any Government, body, authority, partnership, association, or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not, and whether registered or domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere.

The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company.

4. The Company shall not engage in the business of buying, selling, or dealing in timber lands, timber leases, or timber licences as a class of business operation for profit.

(h.) To carry on the business of general merchants and dealers in all manufactured goods and materials, provision, and produce whatsoever:

(i.) To receive valuables, jewellery, money, stocks, debentures, securities, goods, materials, and valuable property of all kinds on deposit, or for safe custody, or for carriage and delivery; and to rent out the use of safes and other receptacles, and generally carry on the business of a safe-deposit company:

(j.) To provide and conduct refreshment-rooms, and carry on the business of tea-shop keepers, restaurant and hotel keepers:

(k.) To acquire and take over the purchase or otherwise in any way whatsoever of all or any part of the stock-in-trade, plant, leases, licences, and all other goods and chattels, personal property, and real property and assets of any person, firm, or corporation, or of any business whatsoever and wheresoever carried on, or which may at any time be carried on, either subject to the whole or part of the liabilities thereof respectively, or otherwise as may be agreed, and in either or any of the above cases, and in the case of any debt or account owing or payable by the Company at any time to any person, firm, or corporation (including any shareholder or director of the Company), and (or) in the case of any liability, obligation, or contract for or in respect of which the Company is or is about to become liable, to pay for, satisfy, or discharge the same either in money or debentures or bonds or shares of the Company, or partly in money and partly in shares or bonds or debentures of the Company, or partly in money and partly in shares and partly in bonds or debentures of the Company, or partly in shares and partly in bonds or debentures of the Company, said shares in any or either case to be either partly or fully paid up; such debentures to be secured either by a charge on or a deposit of any part or all of the Company's property of any kind whatsoever, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, or without such charge:

(l.) To guarantee and become surety for the performance of any contract, obligation, or undertaking made or to be made by any person, firm, or corporation whatsoever, and to secure the performance thereof by mortgage or charge on all or any of the property or assets of the Company, including its unpaid or uncalled capital for the time being, or in any other manner whatsoever; provided that nothing herein contained shall confer on the Company the powers of an insurance company within the meaning of the "Insurance Act":

(m.) To secure the fulfilment of any contracts or engagements entered into by the Company by mortgage or charge on all or any of the property of the Company and its unpaid or uncalled capital for the time being, or in any other manner whatsoever:

(n.) To register or license the Company in any of the Provinces of Canada or elsewhere wheresoever, and to do all necessary things in that behalf:

(o.) And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere, and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be independent main objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company:

(p.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring $10\frac{3}{4}$ inches by $7\frac{1}{2}$ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.
